The revival services which have been in progress for the past two weeks at the Baptist church under the able management of Bro. Millican were closed last Sunday night. Bro. Millican has been hit by a lightning bolt from the shoulder, not hesitating to declare "the whole counsel of God." We trust much good has been accomplished. There were three accessions to the church. Bro. Millican endeared himself to the people afresh.—Pecos News.

Nothing Like It. Never before in the history of El Paso were fine goods sold so cheap as they are being sold at Kern's jewelry auction sale. Elgin high grade watches, 17 jewel adjusted movements in 14k gold cases, selling for $35; same in filled cases $15, and lower grades for anything they can get. All other fine goods simply given away. Kern says the goods must be sold. The house yesterday afternoon and evening was crowded out on to the sidewalk with El Paso's best citizens and all getting their share of the bargains. Only a few more days to secure these bargains. Sales daily at 2:30 and 7:30 p. m.

Closing Out Sale. I, the undersigned, have this day sold my entire stock of groceries and fixtures to the El Paso Grocery Co., and said company authorizes me to sell everything regardless of cost. If you want to secure bargains in fancy and staple groceries call at once as all must go within the next few days. Cash only. C. L. ROETTER.

EL PASO, May 17, 1897.

Attention Cow Men! A party having fine range for five thousand head of cattle, wishes to get 500 or 1000 head on shares. Abundance of water and grass. No better range anywhere. Best references given.
